

PRESENT SIMPLE -exercise 2 from the Happy Verby Gang by Isabel Perez

Pili and Sofia like ice cream

I never read a book

My teacher likes music

David hates alcohol

My sister enjoys parties

My brothers play basketball

She studies hard everyday

We go to the disco on Saturday

Your brother looks friendly

I sometimes drink coffee

PRESENT CONTINUOUS -exercise 1 from the Happy Verby Gang by Isabel Perez

Mike is cleaning the house

He is cooking an omelette for dinner

Mike is smiling at me

He is running to catch the train

Mike is dancing in a disco

He is crying

He is laughing at you

He is waiting for the bus

He is playing the guitar

He is drinking water

He is sleeping

He is reading a novel

Mike is thinking about his problems

PRESENT SIMPLE OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS

This is Rosie and her family's house. They live in a small town near Brighton. Rosie lives with her mum, her dad, her two brothers Tom and Toni and her dog Ronny. They have a big back garden with some trees. Rosie likes helping her mum with the garden.

Today is Saturday, at the moment she is cleaning and tidying her bedroom and her brothers are cooking breakfast in the kitchen. They like bacon and eggs and every weekend they make breakfast for the family.

This afternoon, Tom and Toni are driving to Brighton to go to the cinema and Rosie is dancing at the club with her friends. Every Saturday afternoon, Rosie's mum visits Aunt Liza and comes back home for dinner. Rosie's dad usually stays at home and watches a video. At the moment, he is talking on the phone.